

BOB CANTWELL

Managing Director, Boeing Canada
Managing Director, Boeing Vancouver

Bob Cantwell is the managing director of Boeing Canada and Boeing Vancouver. In his country leadership role, Bob is responsible for the development and implementation of the Boeing Canada enterprise strategy.

He also serves as the company's senior corporate representative in Canada and chairs the Boeing Canada Holdings Board. At Boeing Vancouver, Bob is responsible for leading the creation of data-driven software solutions that support Boeing commercial and defence customers worldwide.

Bob began his Boeing career in Vancouver in 2001. Starting as CFO with a staff of less than 20 people, Bob helped build Boeing Vancouver from its modest beginnings to the analytics and aviation software leader that it is today.

Prior to joining Boeing, Bob spent 21 years at Air Canada in various senior management positions.
