

DAVID GOSSEN
President & C.O.O.
IMP Aerospace & Defence

Mr. Gossen has worked with IMP since 1984 and ascended through various leadership roles within the Company and assumed his current position as President of IMP Aerospace & Defence in 2002. Under his leadership and building on Canada's existing military aircraft fleets, led the award of a number of new and challenging international programs. David serves on the Board of Directors of the Aerospace Industries Association of Canada (AIAC) as well as Canadian Association of Defence and Security Industries (CADSI) and is active on a number of Federal defence and industry advisory panels