

Sabrina M

Acting Regional Director General
Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS)

Sabrina M is currently Acting Regional Director General for the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS) which is mandated to investigate threats to Canada's national security.

She is currently accountable for all CSIS activity within British Columbia and Yukon. Previous to this, she worked at National Headquarters in the Data Exploitation Unit.

Her career spans nearly 25 years, the majority of which has been in operations with the CSIS BC regional office. She has held increasingly senior positions managing a variety of investigations. Prior to joining CSIS, Sabrina worked in student recruitment for a university in Quebec. Originally from Nova Scotia, Sabrina holds a Bachelor of Arts degree.